

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

To Entertain Tonight.
Mrs. George Nelson will entertain this evening at her home on Seventh street as one of the chain of social affairs being given by the women of the M. P. temple. The evening promises to be most enjoyable.

Leaving Soon.
The Mason Dixon Seven, a Clarksburg musical aggregation which has gained popular favor in this city by the excellence of the music it furnishes for dances, will leave soon for other states to be gone an indefinite period. The aggregation played for the Par Mar dance last evening and furnished such delightful music that it has been engaged for another dance to be given by the club to be held at a date to be announced later.

Class to Meet.
The Bible class of the East side will meet at the Community building on the East side Thursday evening. Special music will be furnished by the Alamo chorus of which Rev. Brooks Morkan is president. A piano solo will be rendered by Junior McMillan, and the lesson will be taught by Rev. Charles F. Eddy. A young people's meeting will be held that evening at seven o'clock. Everybody is welcome to this meeting.

To the East.
Judge and Mrs. W. S. Haymond are leaving this evening for Philadelphia where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. John M. Wolfe. Judge Haymond will return here in a few days but Mrs. Haymond will remain there for several weeks.

Gave Recital.
The pupils in music of Miss Iva E. Ginkel gave a most delightful recital last evening at her studio on Gaston avenue. A number of the friends of the young musicians were present and enjoyed the program as furnished. Those who participated on the program were Misses: Frances Watson, Marion Stemple, Katherine Brobst, Marguerite Morris, Evelyn Allard, Maxine Moore, Martha Jane Eddy, Mary Olive Eddy, Amy LaFollette, Rose Victor, Ellen Queer, Gene Carpenter.

Old Folks Concert.
As a benefit of the Charity fund of Cook hospital an entertainment of a delightful nature will be given in the near future at the Y. M. C. A. The entertainment will be an "Old Folks Concert" and the program will consist of songs, duets and musical numbers of various natures which will be sung by the older musicians of the city. Several years ago a similar concert was given here which proved to be such a success that there is no doubt in the minds of the promoters of this concert that the announcement of a similar program will be greeted with enthusiasm. Haydon's famous orchestra will play a number of the old time airs and this alone assures the success of the entertainment. Other men and women of the city who are skilled in singing will also participate on the program which will be announced shortly. The proceeds will be used for the charity fund of Cook hospital which fund is badly depleted at this time. This is a most worthy cause and in this ward those of the city who are unable to secure medical attention and care are given the necessary attention to restore them to health. The committee in charge of the entertainment is composed of Mesdames Thomas I. Brett, George Thomas Watson, E. C. Jones, E. C. Frame and E. B. Moore. The date for the affair will be announced later.

Enjoyable Dance.
A large number of young people were present at the dance given at the Masonic temple last evening and the evening was delightfully spent in dancing. The Mason-Dixon seven of Clarksburg furnished the music for the dancers. The committee in charge of the dance was composed of H. Robb Furman, Arthur Michie, Ernest Robinson, Jennings Martin and Clark Reese.

Held Meeting.
The Misses Hallie and Anna Martin were hostesses last evening at the home of Robert E. Lee chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Following a business session a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Guests Here.
The Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Smith of Belington are guests of their daughter Mrs. L. N. Yost and Dr. Yost at their residence on the Century Club road. They are moving at this time to Montgomery, W. Va., where they will reside.

In Parkersburg.
Mrs. James Edwin Watson, Jr., and Miss Mary Louise Nichols are in Parkersburg the guests of the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Blackford.

Held Enjoyable Meeting.
The ladies auxiliary of the B. and O. veterans association held an enjoyable meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Evans at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station. After the regular business session a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served. Pleasing features of the evening were a reading "Mother Rides the Goat" by Master Robert Grimes, son of Engineer F. G. Grimes, and talks by T. A. Richardson, J. F. Shaffer, E. B. Casaday all prominent railroad men.

To Dance Tonight.
All arrangements are completed for the informal dance which will be given this evening by the Knights of Columbus at their hall on Main street. The affair is completely in the hands of the past and all others assisted in putting on the Knights of Columbus minstrel recently. Phillopa orchestra will furnish the music.

away at about 8 o'clock the same evening. The funeral was held from the residence on Tuesday morning conducted by W. J. S. Harmer of Shinnston and interment was made in the Cochrane cemetery at Helen's Run. The family had only resided in Worthington for a short time coming here from Altoona, Pa.

Preaching Service.
Rev. Willis E. Pierce of Cameron arrived here on Monday afternoon and preached in the Christian church at 7:30 p. m. after which a large party boarded the interurban car and went to Shinnston where the ordination of baptism was administered to several candidates in the baptistry of the Shinnston Christian church.

Will Close Pastorate.
Rev. B. E. Hanks who has been pastor of the local Christian church for the past two years will close his pastorate here on Sunday, May 23rd when the year expires. The growth of the Manning church has been such that full time service is required and at that point, the local church will try to secure a pastor at an early date.

Automobile Wrecked.
Rev. Jesse J. Jackson who recently purchased a Ford car was trying it out on Saturday afternoon on Main street and losing control of the machine he collided with a trolley car on lower Main street. The trolley was too powerful for the Ford car and damaged it considerably. The driver jumped from the car and escaped without being injured.

Personals.
Isaac McIntire who has been visiting the family of his daughter Mrs. J. W. Geddes at Egg Harbor City, N. J., for the past month returned home on Sunday. He was accompanied home by his grandson Isaac Andrew Geddes.

Mesdames C. O. Messenger and Albert Eastrom were shopping in Elberstone on Tuesday.

Mrs. Annet Vance was visiting with friends in Monongah on Tuesday.

Bert C. Linn of Bethlehem was a business caller here on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hansford of Shinnston were Sunday visitors with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harrison of Clarksburg and children were visiting Mrs. Harrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Morgan on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Strum and children of Clarksburg were visiting Mrs. Strum's parents Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Morgan on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will B. Snyder and young son of Huron, Wyo. county, were visiting relatives here on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour McIntire and Mrs. Winnie Jacobs, all of Fairmont attended the preaching services at the Christian church on Monday evening.

A. C. Hamilton of Mannington was a visitor in town on Monday.

L. H. Michael of Festus was transacting business in town on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Hahn of Middletown were visitors in town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harris were visiting the latter's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Feaster, in Fairmont, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davault spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morley near Winfield.

Misses Ruby and Thelma Bower were calling on Misses Liska and Edith Brown Sunday.

Miss Lillian Hylbert, of Reedy, spent a few days with the family of H. L. Harris recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harris were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis at Mt. Clear on Sunday last.

Lawrence Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawkins, who has been sick for some time, is still very sick at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harris spent Sunday with the family of J. E. Joffe at Catawba.

George M. Nuzum was a business caller at this place on Thursday of last week.

Miss Maxine Davault, of Mt. Harmony, is spending a few days this week with her brother, Charles Davault, at this place.

Clyde Hayhurst and sister, Miss Nina, was calling on the family of E. A. Fitcher Monday.

Work has been very slack at the mines here for some time on account of the scarcity of railroad cars.

Ascension Day at St. Peter's Church

In observance of Ascension day special services will be held at St. Peter's Catholic church in this city tomorrow. Mass will be celebrated at seven and nine in the morning and in the evening short devotions will be celebrated. At the early service tomorrow a large class of children will receive holy communion.

OPERATORS SEEK

(Continued from page one.)
Western Maryland railroad on Tuesday aggregated 99 loads of coal.

Demand for Coal.
Car shortage together with the large number of assigned cars naturally has made uncontracted coal very scarce. The result has been that many buyers have gone directly to the mines to buy coal, but from all accounts the brokers are holding up their end.

Advisory Board Meet.
Late this afternoon it is expected that another session of the joint advisory board of the operators and miners of Northern West Virginia will be held in the rooms in the Jacobs building. A number of grievances will come up for action involving local questions. It will probably require three or four days to settle all of the matters to be brought before the board.

East of Grafton.
Twenty-four trains over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on Tuesday drew 1127 loads east of Grafton. This is the heaviest movement for some time.

Daily Consignments.
These daily consignments were made of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on Tuesday: Curtis Bay, 145 cars; St. George's, 13 cars; Michigan points, 13 cars; Ohio points, 21 cars; miscellaneous western points, 11 cars.

Railroad Fuel.
Railroad fuel loaded on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on Tuesday totaled 167 cars. The bulk of tonnage was secured by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, 119 cars. The Philadelphia & Reading railroad on Tuesday received consignments totaling 32 cars. Central of New Jersey and New York Central consignments were cut down on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont on Tuesday.

Deed Is Filed.
The deed transferring the 750 acres of coal to the Chesapeake Coal Company from the Monongahela Coal company was filed on Tuesday.

Some Embargoes.
An embargo is effective today on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to Arlington and St. George's coal piers.

Lake shipments to Lorain will be accepted this week without being accompanied by permits.

United Mine Workers.
John Cusack, district organizer, and A. C. Porter, district board member, are at Grafton today.

Today C. Frank Keeney, Charles

son, president of district 1, E. A. Scott, international board member and Scott Reese, district board member are at Wyal. They are accompanied by E. S. McCallough, labor commissioner of the Northern West Virginia Coal Operators' Association.

Personal Mention.
H. C. Nicewonger, Greensburg, Pa., general manager of stores of the Jamison Coal & Coke Company, was in Fairmont yesterday.

Benjamin Bissell, Baltimore, general manager of the Century Coal Company, Century, W. Va., was here on Tuesday.

C. J. Steinmiller, Bethlehem, Pa., is here in the interest of the Pen Mary coal company.

Paul Rufer, Elkins, W. Va., secretary to President Everett Drennen, of the West Virginia Coal & Coke